

Annual Disclosure of Outside Interests

Name: Zsolt Darvas

December 2012

Note: this disclosure form established following the adoption by Bruegel of its public Statement on Research Integrity, on 3 May 2006. The nature of each commitment shall be clearly described, as well as its financial impact, if any. In compliance with the provisions of the Statement.

Academic Commitments

- Associate Professor, Corvinus University of Budapest (part time); paid more than €2500 per year
- Research Fellow, Institute of Economics, Research Centre for Economic and Regional Studies, Hungarian Academy of Sciences, on un-paid leave
- Coordinator and principal researcher of the research project 'The use of time-varying parameter econometric models for economic policy' funded by a Hungarian research grant (OTKA 76868). Project period: October 2008 to December 2012. The grant cannot be used for personal compensation, but only for covering material costs.

Political Commitments

- no

National Commitments

- no

Business / Commercial Commitments

- As a council member of the Gerson Lehrman Group, I participated in five consultations (about 40-60 minutes each) between January and March 2012 on a single topic not related to my research at Bruegel (The economic and political outlook of Hungary and the prospect for a new financial assistance agreement between Hungary and the IMF). Paid less than €2500 in total.
- Participation in one conference call (approx. one hour) organised by the Trans-National Research Corporation on a topic not related to my research at Bruegel (The economic and political outlook of Hungary and the prospect for a new financial assistance agreement between Hungary and the IMF). Paid less than €2500.

Other Commitments (e.g. participation in other think tanks or international committees)

- Member, Ad Hoc Group on the Removal of Iceland's Capital Controls (honorarium is paid to Bruegel)

Date:

7 December 2012

Signed:

Zsolt Darvas