

Annual Disclosure of Outside Interests

Name: Francesco Papadia

Period covered: 2017

Note: this disclosure form established following the adoption by Bruegel of its public Statement on Research Integrity, on 3 May 2006. The nature of each commitment shall be clearly described, as well as its financial impact, if any.

Academic Commitments

- I held a half of a course on Financial Regulation at LUISS University in Rome. Paid commitment.

Political Commitments

- No commitment

National Commitments

- No Commitment

Business / Commercial Commitments

- Occasional consulting activities for investors in the financial market through two companies: GLG (Gerson Lehrman Group) and Coleman. Significantly paid.
- Occasional participation in conferences as paid speaker. Significantly paid.

Other Commitments (e.g. participation in other think tanks or international committees)

- I am the Chair of the Board of PCS (Primary Collateralised Securities) a Belgian Association Sans But Lucratif (ASBL), set-up as an initiative of the financial industry to relaunch the market for Asset Backed Securities. Significantly paid.
- I am the Chair of the Selection Panel of the Hellenic Financial Stability Fund. The Fund is a private body with a public purpose created and regulated by a Greek law, with the purpose to rehabilitate the Greek banking system. The Selection Panel has three tasks: first, annual evaluation of the top management and General Council of the Fund; second, setting the remuneration of the top management and Members of the General Council; third, preparing short lists for the Greek Minister of Finance for candidates for top management positions and Members of the General Council. Significantly paid.

- Writing a book (Central Banking in Turbulent Times) to be published in March 2018 by Oxford University Press. Payment unknown, as will depend on number of copies sold.
- Blogger on: Monetary Matters? (unpaid).

Date: January 25th 2018

Signed: